Just a Family Gathering

Sunday next, March 17, 1929, will be the 25th Anniversary of Dr. David M. Steele, as Rector of our Parish; and it is our earnest desire that there be a full attendance at the ten o'clock session of the Sunday School with every member present.

At the close of Sunday School, we will, as we do at Easter and Christmas, go into Church for the Eleven O'clock service in a body, and occupy the north gallery.

Do not let anything prevent your being present.

Very sincerely yours,

Jas. H. Bell

Rev. and Mrs. David M. Steele will be delighted if you can come in to see their new apartment, 1530 Locust Street, and have a cup of Tea, from four until five o'clock, on Saturday,

It occurs to them that, apart from the Classes of the Sunday School already entertained, others of the young ladies especially might enjoy doing this and seeing some Wedding Presents.

This letter goes to about twenty names, taken alphabetically from the Envelope Enrollment. Other groups will follow on other Saturdays.

HOLY WEEK

We are planning this year for one fine Children's Service in Church on Wednesday before Easter. We expect the same 200 parents and children, babies and grown-ups, at this Service who were here for the Party in the Parish House last Christmas Week. Set other things aside and be here on time for this unusual event. Flowers and music. Prayers and hymns. Address by the Rector. Do not be absent. We want all those who have been here on Wednesdays in Lent— and especially all who have not.

Dear Mr. Chiccone:

Mrs. Harris and I are planning a picnic dinner out at the Church farm, Broomall, on Saturday, August 4th, at 6:30. We hope very muchtthat you can come both for the dinner and to stay the night, If you cannot come for over-night at least come for the dinner.

Since we are expecting a large number it is essential to know how many are coming. Would you immediately inform the Church Office (Pen. 2883) if you can come either for dinner or for the night or for both.

Sincerely yours,

P.S. There will be an orchestra for dancing in the barn.

My dear Parishioner:

After a most interesting vacation in London, Moscow and Berlin, I am heartily glad to be back again in Philadelphia and look forward with enthusiasm to the winter's work.

Next Sunday, October 18th, is St. Luke's Day, and has therefore for our Parish a special significance. I shall be preaching at both the morning and afternoon services and hope very much that I shall have the pleasure of greeting you after one or the other of these services.

Cordially yours,

Thomas L. Harris

Rector

220

St. James's Church Offices

September 29, 1936.

My dear Friends:—

The Association between St. James's and St. Luke and the Epiphany is to be dissolved,—at least so far as the Sunday morning services are concerned,—and the regular Sunday services are to be resumed at St. James's on Sunday, October 11th.

When the Association was formed, its tentative and experimental nature was fully recognized. It was to last for two years in the hope that well within that time we should be able to find a permanent basis for common worship and work. During the year and three months that have passed, we have all had experience of the value of the principle of Association in our work together. There are, however, certain questions, legal and financial to which we have not been able to find mutually satisfactory answers, and therefore St. James's Rector and Vestry have informed the authorities of St. Luke and the Epiphany of their intention to return to St. James's for the regular Sunday services this autumn.

Mr. Harris will not return until the middle of October, and soon after that he and I will probably make a joint statement. We propose to continue to work as closely as possible together in the School of Religion and other ways, even though our Sunday services will be held separately.

It is unfortunately impossible for us to continue the arrangement with Dr. Newton. For six years he has carried on with distinction his great work as Preacher, and has been of incalculable and permanent help to many hundreds of people. When the Association was formed he agreed to become Special Preacher for the Associated Churches for one year, November 1st, 1935, to October 31st, 1936. That we are unable to renew the relationship is a matter of profound regret to us all.

The Sunday services at St. James's, beginning October 11th will be at 8 and 11 A. M. and 8 P. M. There will be a Celebration of the Holy Communion every weekday morning at 7:30—with a second service at 10 A. M. on Saints' Days and Holy Days.

I have asked Mr. Ernest White to come back to us as Organist and Choirmaster. He has promised to do so, but his contract with Columbia University does not terminate for some months. Meantime, Mr. Uselma Clark Smith, formerly at the Church of the Redeemer, Bryn Mawr, will have charge of our music. The Choir will consist of eight men.

I make these announcements with mixed feelings. On the one hand I am glad beyond measure to return to St. James's, as I am sure all of you will be. But, on the other hand, I regret that so serious a check has come to what was in many ways a very promising step towards the solution of the central city problem of our Episcopal Churches.

I do not in the least regret the great and costly efforts we have made in these last years, and I am proud of the splendid loyalty and self-sacrifice of St. James's Vestry and people.

From this time on we shall necessarily carry on our work on a reduced scale, but I know that you will help with your prayers and your support to see that we do the very best we can "on our own".

On Sunday morning, October 11th, I propose to make a statement as to our plans for the immediate future, and I hope all of you will be in Church.

Yours faithfully,

John Mockridge

Dear Fellow Parishioners:

For those of you who were unable to attend services yesterday, I should like to announce, with great pleasure, acceptance by the Rev. Rodger C. Broadley of the Vestry's call to become the eighth Rector of The Church of St. Luke and The Epiphany.

It has been a long and difficult time here for all of us, but certain requirements had to be fulfilled and an extensive search conducted. Your Search Committee has in all candor and faith recommended a candidate which the Vestry accepted January 31, 1984. I thank you--the Vestry thanks you--for your patience and understanding during this trying period. If it was troublesome and uncertain for you, than please believe that it was terribly so for us.

This call is your Vestry's mature, intensely considered, and prayerful decision. We hope you are as satisfied as we are with our choice. Father Broadley is a strong, willing, able, eager, and truly Christian young man. I ask your support for him as he moves into this responsible position where we expect him to help us grow as a parish--not only in our neighborhood, but in the Diocese as well. He cannot succeed in this task alone. We must help him--each in his or her own way.

Yours faithfully,

Charles O. Culver
